

Prof. Ercan Işık

Professor at Civil Engineering Department in Bitlis Eren University, Türkiye since 2011. He received the B.S. degree, the M.S. degree and Ph.D from Sakarya University on Civil Engineering in 1997, 2000 and 2010. He joined the faculty at Bitlis Eren University in 2007 where he is currently a professor of civil engineering department. Fields of his studies; Loss estimation, reinforced-concrete structures, masonry structures, damage assessment and rapid evaluation methods. He teaches Strength of Materials and Reinforced-Concrete Structures courses at undergraduate level. He also directed 20 master's theses. He took part in national and international projects.